Report on Guest Lecture by Prof. Sandip Girde

Date: 15th September 2021

Time : 11:00 AM

Venue: Kumbhalkar College of Social Work, Wardha

Organized by: Kumbhalkar College of Social Work, Wardha, under the MoU with Indraprastha New Arts Commerce and Science College, Wardha

Objective: The guest lecture by Prof. Sandip Girde, from Indraprastha New Arts College, Wardha, was organized under the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Kumbhalkar College of Social Work, Wardha, and Indraprastha New Arts Commerce and Science College, Wardha. The primary objective of this lecture was to provide insights into social work practices and theories to the students of both colleges.

Participants:

- Students and faculty members from Kumbhalkar College of Social Work, Wardha
- Students and faculty members from Indraprastha New Arts Commerce and Science College, Wardha

Session Highlights:

- Introduction: The session commenced with a warm introduction of Prof. Sandip Girde, highlighting his academic credentials, professional experience, and contributions to the field of social work. His expertise in various domains of social work was emphasized, setting the stage for an insightful session.
- Lecture on Social Work Theories and Practices: Prof. Sandip Girde delivered a comprehensive lecture on contemporary social work theories and practices. The topics covered included:
  - Introduction to Social Work as a Profession
  - Major Theoretical Frameworks in Social Work (e.g., Systems Theory, Ecological Perspective)
  - Social Work Methods and Interventions
  - Case Studies Illustrating Practical Applications
- Interactive Discussion: The lecture encouraged active participation from the audience, fostering discussions on the relevance of social work theories in addressing current social issues. Students engaged in dialogue, sharing their perspectives and raising thought-provoking questions related to the lecture content.
- Insights into Field Work: Prof. Sandip Girde shared valuable insights from his practical experiences in the field of social work. He highlighted the challenges and rewards of working in diverse community settings, emphasizing the importance of empathy, cultural competence, and ethical practice in social work.

- Q&A Session: A dedicated question-and-answer session allowed students to seek clarification on specific concepts discussed during the lecture. Prof. Sandip Girde provided detailed responses, further enriching students' understanding of social work principles and practices.

Conclusion: The guest lecture by Prof. Sandip Girde was highly informative and beneficial for the students of both Kumbhalkar College of Social Work and Indraprastha New Arts Commerce and Science College. It provided them with a deeper understanding of social work theories, practical insights into field work, and encouraged critical thinking about the challenges faced by social workers today.

Acknowledgments: The organizers extend sincere appreciation to Prof. Sandip Girde for his valuable contribution to the guest lecture. Gratitude is also expressed to all participants, faculty members, and administrative staff who supported and facilitated the successful conduct of this event.

Future Prospects: Looking ahead, both colleges aim to continue collaborating through similar academic initiatives under their MoU. Future activities may include more guest lectures, workshops, and joint research projects, further enhancing the educational experiences and professional development opportunities for students in the field of social work.
