REPORT

The Department of Biotechnology conducted "ALUMNI TALK" To the students of M.Sc. and B.Sc. on Date 23/11/2019 at 11:00AM in Seminar Hall.

A lecture is on occasion when you numb one and to benefit the other within the confines of the lecture hall, no other virtue exists but plain intellectual integrity to expose students to biotechnology and it's significance in research, a Guest Lecture was organized by Dept. of Biotechnology.

Resource person Dr. Nivrutti Bagalkar started her lecture by stating some basic concepts of tissue culture. he emphasized on the importance of in virtue cultivation of plant cells on artificial nutrient medium under aseptic environment and discussed the basic requirement of stock medium. He stressed on the two main applications on plant tissue culture in horticulture i.e. propagation and sanitation. The culture of single cell and meristem can be effectively used to eradicate pathogens from plant material. Tissue culture protocols are available for most of the horticultural crops although continued optimization is still required for many crops like cereals and woody plants. The talk was end with vote of thanks. There were about 35 students present.
