

Indraprastha New Arts, Commerce & Science College, Wardha

Social Work Department

AIMS :

1. To provide professional education in social work & to develop a sense of civic consciousness & social responsibility in the students.
2. To train personnel for a wide range of social work intervention at various levels in the field of social welfare through class room teaching, research & field work strengthened by various field action projects

Masters Degree Courses :

INFORMATION OF STRUCTURE OF THEORY PAPERS, PRACTICUM & RESEARCH

Masters Degree Courses

- Mode of Learning: Full Time
- Course Level: Masters Degree
- Course Duration: 2 Years

INFORMATION OF STRUCTURE OF THEORY PAPERS, PRACTICUM & RESEARCH

M.S.W. – 1st Semester

- 1. Perspectives of Social Work Practice in India
- 2. Method Course I : Case Work
(Working with Individuals & Families)
- 3. Method Course II : Group Work
(Working with Groups)
- 4. Introduction to Psychology for Social Work
- 5. Introduction to Sociology for Social Work
- 6. Social Work Practicum

M.S.W. – 2nd Semester

- 1. Social Legislations and Advocacy
- 2. Professional Development for Social Work
- 3. Corporate Social Responsibility
- 4. Method Course III : Community Organization
and Social Action
- 5. Method Course IV : Social Work Research
- 6. Social Work Practicum

M.S.W. – 3rd Semester

- 1. Social Policy, Planning and Development
- 2. Specialization Paper – |
- 3. Specialization Paper – ||
- 4. Specialization Paper – |||

- 5. Statistics & Computer Basics in Social
- Work Research / OR Application of Social Work Skills
- 6. Introduction to Sociology
- 7. Social Work Practicum

M.S.W. – 4th Semester

- 1. NGO Management and Media
- 2. Specialization Paper – IV
- 3. Specialization Paper – V
- 4. Specialization Paper – VI
- 5. Disaster Management OR
- Livelihood Promotion
- 6. Research Dissertation,
- 7. Social Work Practicum

SPECIAL FEATURE OF THE SOCIAL WORK DEPARTMENT:

1. Involvement of students in research activities.
2. Applied creativity – workshops
3. Programmes for orphanage and old age home
4. Programmes on current social issues.
5. Value based orientation and social orientation.
6. Developing oral and writing skills of students
7. Students counseling free of cost.
8. Grand exhibition of Maharashtra Culture.
9. social work Study Forum for all round development.
10. Consistent good results and few distinction holders

A historic and defining feature of social work is the profession's focus on individual well-being in a social context and the well-being of society. Social workers promote social justice and social change with and on behalf of clients. A "client" can be an individual, family, group, organization, or community.

Program educational Objectives :

1. To make the students understand the methods of intervention that comes across the system (Individual, family, group, agency and Community).
2. Student should be able to make the applicability of both the ethnic & Social Sensitive Approaches to deal with the persons or group of disabled, Senior Citizens, Victims of Violence, Children & Youth.
3. To inculcate in students how to integrate knowledge of social work profession and current social welfare structures , Policies, Issues , and develop ability to analyze it impact upon client system, Human Service agencies and Communities.
4. To prepare students for ethical decision-making guided by the values, principles & standards of the social work profession, particularly the values of self-determination, empowerment, & regard for diversity

5. Apply critical thinking skills in problem solving with social work values and ethics, human diversity issues, the dynamics of discrimination and oppression, social and economic justice, and interactions among systems.
6. Students must develop an ability of or acting to bring about social change to reduce social barriers, inequality and injustice.
7. He must build the ability of Upholding people's interest and rights based on the principle of "Helping people to help themselves"

Program Outcome :

1. Promote principles of social justice, human rights and anti-oppressive practice as intrinsic elements of social work practice.
2. Engage in a process of self-awareness, self-monitoring and continuous professional development .Develop 'research minded' practitioners who will continue to update their knowledge and engage in systematic evaluation of their practice.
3. Apply knowledge of social systems and human behavior to promote social change, problem solving in human relationships and the empowerment of people to enhance their well-being identify elements of good practice for supporting people through transitions.
4. Should become accountable, Expert in planning, intervening, managing and evaluating practice.
5. Gain the knowledge of identifying elements of good practice for supporting people through transitions.
6. He should recognize the responsibilities of social workers in protecting service users and the public within legal contexts.
7. Respond reflectively and reflexively as a social worker in a variety of social work settings, including multi-disciplinary contexts.

Program Specific Outcome :

1. Students should understand & develop administrative and management knowledge about social policy and the delivery of social services, vision for future planning, an understanding of human behavior, and commitment to social work ethics and values. Along with the understanding of their legal rights.
2. When families are unable to carry out their roles and responsibilities, then social workers must intervene to protect the children from harm. Child welfare social workers ensure that children and youths who have experienced abuse or neglect are supported through a range of services.
3. He should know to handle and treat alcohol, tobacco, and other drug addictions through case management, group and individual therapy, family counseling, advocacy for jobs and housing needs, community resource development, education, and policy making.
4. He must understand the needs and problems and develop the foresight of or should focuses on the physical, psychological, social, and economic aspects of daily living.
5. Advocacy is one of the keystones of social work practice. Social work advocates champion the rights of individuals and communities with the goal of achieving social justice. Community organizing and advocacy work must be finely focused in his work

Course Objective:

1. Prepare students for professional social work practice in a variety of systems and settings with diverse client populations.

2. Educate students for advanced practice in an identified area of concentration in Rural and urban setting through micro or macro practice.
3. Foster the use of social work knowledge, skills, values, and ethics in all aspects of their professional activities.
4. Cultivate leadership for social change and in the development of social service delivery systems.
5. Cultivate a climate of critical inquiry.

Course Outcome:

1. Understands and identifies simple intervention strategies in relation to the problematic situation.
2. Understands and responds to problems of individuals, families and groups. Able to develop working relationship with the agency, client system, staff, colleagues and others in the field.
3. By the end of the semester, is able to develop expertise in a specific area & mobilize/ resources required in the problem solving process.
4. Writes recordings which are process oriented and reflective, with analysis in relation to the dynamics of the problems situation / and indicates ability to relate Theory to Practice.
5. Able to suggest appropriate strategies / plan for intervention.